

Themes of the Month:

Love & Creating and Innovating

On the reverse side of this issue is the December Calendar. Attached is the Trimester One Exams Schedule.

An Eastwood College Champion!

Congratulations to Patrick Njeim (8A) who came first in the Lebanese Carting Championship 2009. He won the championship with only one point between him and his younger brother Matthias Njeim (Grade 6) who came second in the general classification in the category of 15 HP.

Mabrouk and thanks to the teachers and friends who supported them during the races!

To all Grades 7-12 students: Make the most of the coming school days by studying and preparing for your Trimester One Exams. I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a successful 2010. Remember that classes resume after the break on January 4th. God bless you!

Issue III

December 2009

Theme of the Year: The Time is Always Right to Do What is Right

Dear Parents,

At this very special time of year, may I wish you a blessed Adha, a Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year 2010. December is going to be short, but fulfilled with great moments and lots of activities. The most important moments for the Middle and High School students are the Trimester One Exams. I wish them the best of luck in their preparation.

Every year, Eastwood College Students organize some activities to help less fortunate people. This year, we have chosen to be part of the Nehnala-baad Program on LBC.

Please encourage your child/children to be active participant/s in the project. The final episode will take place on December 19th. For more information please contact Mrs. Jihane Francis, the Project Coordinator.

On another note, it is my pleasure to announce that the Eastwood College Choir will perform in the lobby of Habtoor Hotel starting December 14th at 4:30pm. Please see the December Calendar for more information. We will be waiting for your presence and support at Habtoor!

Sincerely yours,

Zakieh Naimy Bassil

Director
