Issue IV

January 2010

Theme of the Year:
The Time is Always Right to Do What is Right

Dear Parents,

This is our first Newsletter in 2010. May I take this opportunity to wish you a peaceful, happy, successful and healthy New Year. Moreover, I would like to thank you once more for your support and generosity towards the extra-curricular activities related to Christmas.
God bless you and your families.

As we mentioned in the December Newsletter,
the Trimester One report cards for Grades 7-12 will be available on Wednesday, January 13th. You are invited to come and meet with your child/children's teachers and collect the reports between 2:30pm and 4:30pm. We look forward to seeing you in the School chapel. Please note that on that day supervision during the Parent/Teacher Interviews will not be provided for your children.

Sincerely yours,

Zakieh Naimy Bassil

Director

DEAR Week at Eastwood College!

The last week of January 25th-29th will be dedicated to reading. All students and staff members are required to drop everything and read every day for a specific amount of time to be announced later. Please do encourage your child/children to read, and please read aloud to them on a daily basis if possible! Parents are welcome to contact the school if they wish to conduct reading sessions for the students in the library during the DEAR Week. Happy reading to all of you!

HINI Flu

No absent student will be allowed to rejoin the school without a medical report!! Thank you for your cooperation in keeping Eastwood a healthy place!

Dear Students and Parents,

School Website!

www.eastwoodcollege.com Please keep yourself updated with the School Website! You can access to different areas of the school in both campuses!
Your input is very much welcomed and appreciated!

LAU MUN!

The theme of this year is:
"Peace starts in the Mind".
Thanks to Mrs. Randa Hassan and Miss Christel Dahdouh, our advisers for the LAU MUN this year, and good luck to the participants!

Sports News!

The sports activities in school and outside school will continue in Trimester Two. We wish our students, especially the Football Team all the best!
